

Spixii Privacy Policy

Welcome to Spixii, a personal online Services operated by Spixii LLC (hereinafter referred to as "Spixii") which consists of any software running on Spixii's servers, ("Spixii Software"), Social network content, related documentation, information on the Spixii domain, and information made available by users to each other through the Spixii Software (collectively, the "Services").

Spixii acknowledges the importance of Privacy and organizes Privacy management as described in the present Privacy Policy. Spixii maintains the Services to protect information about the User from unauthorized disclosure to others.

By using the Services, the User consent to the collection and use of the User's personal information as outlined in this Privacy Policy, as such policy may be amended at any time on Spixii own will. In case this Privacy Policy is changed, the new version of this Privacy policy is going to be made available at Spixii.com. Subsequent access to the Services indicates that the User agrees with the new version of this Privacy policy.

What We Collect

Spixii collects and records the information the User have provided. Other than names, gender, age, location and email addresses provided at the User's discretion, we don't generally collect any "Personally Identifying Information" about our users, exception being for billing and payments where we store the User's billing information such as name, street address, phone number.

In addition to information about the User, the User may choose to share information about the User in other content, such as in games. Any action the User perform with other players are considered public, and at the User's own discretion.

Spixii collects information that is visible on the User's social network page in accordance with the relevant terms of use associated with that page in case the User accesses the Services through any Social Network Service (SNS App).

Note that since most Spixii Software is served through SNS Apps, it is the User's responsibility to read and accept their Terms of Use, as well as Privacy Policy prior to continuing.

When the User invites new members into the User's network or sends messages through the Services, we collect and maintain on secure servers the information associated with those messages, including email addresses and content.

We may use information about the User that we collect from Spixii games and other users of Spixii, to supplement the User's profile.

Spixii may contain links to other websites. We are of course not responsible for the privacy practices of other web sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site to read the privacy statements of each and every web site that collects personally identifiable information. This Privacy Policy applies solely to information collected by Spixii.

By using the Services, the User consents to our retaining all the above-described information in anonymous form as long as Spixii sees fit.

Children Under The Age Of 13

Spixii does not knowingly collect or solicit personal information from anyone under the age of 13 or knowingly allow such persons to register. If the User are under 13, please do not attempt to register for Spixii or send any information about the User's to us, including the User's name, address, telephone number, or email address. No one under age 13 may provide any personal information to or on Spixii. In the event that we learn that we have collected personal information from a child under age 13 we will delete that information as quickly as possible.

Children Between The Ages of 13 and 18

We recommend that minors over the age of 13 ask their parents for permission before sending any information about themselves to anyone over the Internet.

How We Use The User's Information

We do not sell or rent the User's "Personally Identifiable Information" to any third party. We may, however, use certain information about the User that is not personally.

We use public information collected to determine the kinds of content that the User would like to view and to assist any advertisers in targeting their advertising.

We also use the User's name, email address and other information on our system to notify the User of new product releases, Services notifications, and to solicit the User's feedback and input. Those emails will contain an "unsubscribe" link should the User ever decide the User do not want to receive further emails.

The User understands and agrees that we may access, preserve, and disclose any information we may have about the User and the contents of the User's account if required to do so by law or in a good faith belief that such access, preservation or disclosure is reasonably necessary to avoid liability, to comply with legal process, such as a search warrant, subpoena, statute, or court order, or to protect our rights and property, or that of our affiliates or the public. Spixii is not required to question or contest the validity of any search warrant, subpoena or other similar governmental request that Spixii receives.

Spixii may maintain copies of the User's Content indefinitely, or delete certain Content in whole or in part if Spixii determines, in its sole discretion, that such Content constitutes an "Infringing Posting" or a "Prohibited Posting" as defined in our Terms of Use or for any or no reason.

We also use non-Personally Identifiable Information and certain technical information about the User's computer and the User's access of the Services (including the User's internet protocol address) in order to operate, maintain and manage the Services.

Spixii may disclose information about the User to its partners in order to provide the Services, resolve Services problems and correct errors in the Services, to communicate with the User about the Services, to provide the User with advertising and promotional information in connection with the Services, and to enhance the User's experience on the Services. However, we do not give our partners an independent right to share this information.

Due to our contractual obligations with these third parties and the need to share information to deliver and support the Services, we cannot provide the User with the opportunity to opt-out of sharing information (whether Personally Identifiable Information or other information) with these third parties.

Spixii, certain of its partners, and each of their contractors and employees may view the Content that the User transmit to the Services to provide the Services and otherwise perform the tasks set forth in this Privacy Policy.

Controlling The User's Personal Information

Be advised that if the User sends messages or post material containing personal information, that information may be collected and used by others.

The User can terminate the User's account at any time which will remove the User's profile and other personal information from view. Spixii, however, may (but is not obligated to) keep information about the User that is on its system following the User's termination. Please contact Spixii to terminate the User's account or for any other questions about the User's personal information.

Transfer of Information

We reserve the right to transfer the User's personal information in the event of a transfer of ownership of Spixii or the acquisition of substantially all the assets of Spixii related to the business which collected such information, such as acquisition by or merger with another company. In such an event, Spixii will notify users who have provided email addresses when information about those users is transferred and becomes subject to a different privacy policy.

Others' Information

The User may decide to provide us with another person's email address so that person may be invited to join Spixii or so that we may facilitate the User's communication with other people through the Services (such as when the User upload an address book).

The User may also provide us with another person's contact information for purposes of delivering information through SNS Apps. We use this information to contact and, if necessary, remind that person that he or she has been invited to join Spixii or received content through an SNS App. All invitees are provided with the option not to receive further invitations from Spixii. We may disclose such information if required to do so in order to comply with legal process, as described above.

Cookies

The Services sends "cookies" to the User's computer when the User access the Spixii site, or otherwise view content through a Spixii game, or use an SNS App and the Services uses such cookies as described in here. The Services uses cookies to improve the quality of our Services, make recommendations, and make the Services easier to use for our users. A cookie is a small text file recorded on the User's hard drive that identifies the User as a unique user and contains certain information about the User's particular login session and/or the User's use of the Services.

Use of Information

Spixii may contain links to other web sites, and content in Spixii game and SNS Apps may be hosted by other web sites. In addition, as described above, most content offered through Spixii games or SNS Apps is served or hosted by other sites. These other sites maintain their own policies regarding cookies and the collection and use of personal information. It is up to the User to review those policies the User'sself.

Third-Party Advertising Companies

We use third-party advertising companies to serve ads on our site and on certain Spixii games and SNS Apps. Our system and the third-party advertising technology uses information derived from Activity Information, Spixii's cookies on the User's hard drive, the User's visits to our site, the Spixii games that the User views and the SNS Apps the User uses to target advertising within our site or Spixii games or SNS Apps. In addition, our advertisers may use other third-party advertising technology to target advertising on our site and other sites. In the course of advertisements being served to the User, a unique third-party cookie or cookies may be placed on the User's computer. Similarly, third-party advertising companies may provide us with pixel tags (also called "clear gifs" or "beacons") to help manage and optimize our online advertising. Beacons enable us to recognize a browser's cookie when a browser visits the site on which the beacon is located, and to learn which banner ads bring users to a given site.

Spixii does not provide any Personally Identifiable Information to third-party advertising companies. Note, however, that if an advertiser asks Spixii to show an advertisement to users with certain characteristics (for example, women ages 18-24) or a segment of that group (for example, women ages 18-24 who have viewed certain categories of content) and the User respond to that advertisement, the third-party advertising company may conclude that the User have the characteristics of the audience that they are trying to reach.

Security

Spixii takes appropriate precautions to protect our users' information. The User's account information is located on a secured server behind a firewall. When the User enter sensitive information (such as credit card number or the User's password), we encrypt that information using secure socket layer technology (SSL). (To learn more about SSL, go to http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Secure_Sockets_Layer). Because email and instant messaging are not recognized as secure communications, we request that the User does not send private information to us by email or instant messaging Services. If the User has any questions about the security of Spixii Web Site, please contact us at support@spirates.zendesk.com
